OVERVIEW - CRITERIA - IMPORTANT DATES

OVERVIEW

The Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award presented by The Hartford represents the vision of one of the games most visible and successful players - Mr. Bob Cousy. Presented annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, the Award recognizes the top collegiate male point guard in NCAA Division I, II, and III basketball.

CRITERIA

- Recognizes the vital importance of the point guard position to the success of the unit
- Creates opportunity to maximize team's collective potential
- Leads, directs, and orchestrates successful team play
- Recognizes core basketball skills - passing, dribbling, and creating team offense
- Overall team achievement

SELECTION PROCESS

- A list of nominees for the Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award will be solicited via direct mailings to all Division I, II and III college head coaches and members of CoSIDA, the Sports Information Directors of America.
- CoSIDA's Bob Cousy Award Committee will review the nominations and reduce the number of candidates to a finalist group of 15 players. The finalist group will be represented by players within each NCAA division.
- A premier Blue Ribbon Selection Committee will be appointed by the Hall of Fame to review the finalist group of candidates.
- The Blue Ribbon Selection Committee will be comprised of up to 30 members representing the following constituent groups: Hall of Famers, Head Coaches from each NCAA Division, Sports Information Directors and the Media.
- Selection of the winner will be arrived at by a ballot following the conference call of the Selection Committee.
