SELECTED BY COSIDA

FOR RELEASE:

Thursday, December 15 – noon (EDT)

KRISTY JAECKEL OF FLORIDA
TOPS CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I
VOLLEYBALL TEAM

TOWSON, Md. – Senior Kristy Jaeckel of the University of Florida leads the 2011 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Jaeckel, an outside hitter who has a 4.0 G.P.A. as a graduate student in Sport Management, was chosen as the winner of the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year award for Division I Volleyball.

Honored as the co-winner of the 2011 Southeastern Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year award, Jaeckel led the Gators to a 27-6 record this season. She helped the 17th-ranked Gators finish second in the SEC and make their 21st consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA Tournament, the Gators reached the regional finals where they lost to third-ranked Illinois.

A three-time All-SEC selection, she earned a spot on the first team for the second time this season. A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-South Region Team, she topped the SEC with 49 service aces, a 0.42 average.

A native of Littleton, Col., Jaeckel led the Gators with 3.49 kills per set this season. She was also second on the team with 2.31 digs per set. Jaeckel, who also had a perfect 4.0 G.P.A. as an undergraduate at Florida, finished her career with 1,331 kills, the fifth-highest total in school history. She also ranks tenth on the Gators' all-time list with 58 solo blocks.

A three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Jaeckel was named AVCA National Player of the Week on Oct. 4 and led Florida to a 108-17 record during her career.

Jaeckel was the only member of the first team that was not a repeat selection. She is joined on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball first team by five student-athletes who were chosen to the third team last season.

Graduate student Stephanie Browne of Stanford was named to the first team along with senior Suzy Boulavsky of Oklahoma, senior Kristin Hoffman of Northern Illinois, senior Kelly Williamson of New Mexico and junior Katherine Fischer of Oregon.

A graduate student in Sociology, Browne had a 3.95 G.P.A. and earned her degree in Political Science. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa with University Distinction in the Spring of 2011. The Danville, Cal. native led Stanford to a 22-8 record and its 31st consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance this season. While averaging 1.23 kills per set, Browne was second on the team with 1.09 blocks per set. She was named to the Pac-10 All-Academic first team twice. She is also a member of Psi Chi Psychology Honors Society at Stanford.

A two-time All-Big 12 Conference selection at Oklahoma, Boulavsky is a Public Relations major with a 3.97 G.P.A. She led the Sooners to a 21-12 record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament while earning honorable mention All-Region honors. A native of Houston, Texas, she led the Sooners with 3.28 kills per set and a .291 hitting percentage. A two-time All-Central Region honoree, she also averaged 0.77 blocks per set.

A History major with a 3.97 G.P.A., Hoffman is the NCAA Division I leader with 12.27 assists per set. Thanks to her efforts, Northern Illinois leads the nation in both kills and assists and ranks seventh in hitting percentage. A two-time All-Mid-American Conference first team selection, she became the first Husky ever to win the MAC Setter of the Year award. She led Northern Illinois to a 28-7 record, an NCAA Tournament berth and a second place finish in the MAC. The Batavia, Ill. native recorded her 4,000th career assist this season, becoming the third player in Northern Illinois history to achieve the milestone.

A first team All-Mountain West Conference selection at New Mexico, Williamson is a Conservation Biology major with a 4.00 G.P.A. As a senior, the Buenos Aires, Argentina native led the Lobos to a 14-15 record. She was second on the team with 3.64 kills per set and averaged 1.51 digs per set. A three-time member of the All-MWC Academic team, she competed in the USA Challenge Invitational Tournament for the Bring it Promotions (BIP)/USA Development Team last June. BIP, in conjunction with USA Volleyball, sent two teams of top-level collegiate players to compete in the event. She was also named as the Lobo Club Student-Athlete of The Year for community service contributions as well as academic excellence.

An Accounting major with a 4.02 G.P.A., Fischer is the only junior on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball first team. A native of Los Altos, Cal., Fischer was second on the team with 2.75 kills per set and 2.95 digs per set. She led the 13th-ranked Ducks to a 21-10 record, an NCAA Tournament berth and upset wins over number one-ranked Penn State and UCLA. A Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic honoree, she ranks sixth in career points at Oregon.

The six members of the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball first team have a 3.98 average G.P.A.

Graduate student Jenilee Rathje of Michigan State leads the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball second team. She is joined on the second team by senior Stephanie Figueroa of Texas El Paso, senior Jenna Miller of Tennessee-Martin, senior Lauren Sears of Southern Mississippi and juniors Cecilia Agraz of Fresno State and Ariel Turner of Purdue.

The Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Volleyball third team includes graduate student Emma Keough of Morehead State, senior Paige Dorsey of Southeast Missouri State, senior Kelsey Jewasko of Texas-San Antonio, senior Allison McGlaughlin of Northern Illinois, senior Vineece Verdun of Georgia State and junior Lauren Campbell of Northern Arizona.
