MATT RICE OF WESTERN KENTUCKY,
BRYAN LIPPINCOTT OF CONCORDIA, ST. PAUL TOP
CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® BASEBALL TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior catcher Matt Rice of Western Kentucky University and junior third baseman Bryan Lippincott of Concordia University, St. Paul lead the 2011 Capital One Academic All-America® Baseball Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Rice and Lippincott have been chosen as the winners of the Academic All-America® of the Year award in the University and College Divisions, respectively.

A Mechanical Engineering major with a 4.00 G.P.A., Rice was a second team Capital One Academic All-America® selection as a junior and earned third team honors as a sophomore.

As a senior, he is batting a team high .352 with 44 runs scored, 14 doubles, nine home runs and 56 runs batted in. He also has an impressive .993 fielding percentage while leading the Hilltoppers to a 32-22 record and a fourth place finish in the Sun Belt Conference regular season standings.

A native of Johnson City, Tenn., he earned first team All-Sun Belt Conference honors in 2010. With 308 base hits in his college career, he holds the Western Kentucky record for base hits in a career. He also owns the school record with 215 career runs batted in. As a sophomore, he set a school record with a 31-game hitting streak.

As a junior, he batted .369 with ten homers and 65 RBI's. In his sophomore season, he helped Western Kentucky post a 42-20 record and earn a berth in the NCAA Regionals. He is the recipient of the Charles R. Martin, H.H. Cherry, College Heights Foundation and national/international scholarships.

A Finance major with a 4.00 G.P.A., Lippincott ranks among the NCAA Division II leaders with a .434 batting average. Although the Golden Bears had 18 games cancelled due to weather problems, Lippincott scored 38 runs in 34 games with 17 doubles, six home runs and 39 runs batted in. A Pre-Season All-American, he set a school record with a 28-game hitting streak. Overall, he hit safely in 31 of 34 games while leading the Golden Bears to an 18-16 record.

One of the semi-finalists for the Tino Martinez Award as the top player in Division II, the Des Moines, Iowa native had a .706 slugging percentage. While stealing ten bases in ten attempts, Lippincott was named as the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Player of the Week twice. A first team All-Region selection, he led the NSIC in batting in 2011.

A .406 hitter in his college career, he was named to the NSIC All-Academic team twice.

Rice is joined on the Capital One Academic All-America® University Division first team by senior first baseman Paul Hoilman of East Tennessee State. Hoilman is the only repeat first team selection.

Junior pitcher Danny Hultzen of fifth-ranked Virginia and senior outfielder Chris Slater of Baylor were second team selections who moved up to the first team this year. Senior outfielder Brandon Eckerle of Michigan State, a third team honoree last year, was also named to the first team.

Junior pitcher Michael Roth of South Carolina, senior third baseman Matt Leeds of the College of Charleston, junior third baseman Drew Pettit of Canisius and junior first baseman Dusty Quattlebaum of Gardner-Webb were also named to the University Division first team. Junior outfielder James Ramsey of Florida State and senior designated hitter Marc Bourgeois of Southern Mississippi complete the Capital One Academic All-America® University Division first team.

The 2010 Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year, Hoilman is a Mathematics major with a minor in Business and a 3.95 G.P.A. The Atlantic Sun career leader with 70 home runs, he has led East Tennessee State to a 36-19 record this season. A three-time All-American selection, the Johnson City, Tenn. native is batting .324 with 57 runs scored, 22 doubles, 22 home runs and 50 runs batted in. Honored as the Atlantic Sun Scholar-Athlete of the Year, he holds school records for career hits (307), runs scored (243), homers (70) and runs batted in (242).
