

CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAM SELECTED BY CoSIDA

FOR RELEASE: Monday, November 26 – 12 noon (EDT)

LIAM BARRETT, MIA PERSSON TOP CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® COLLEGE DIVISION SOCCER TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior forward Liam Barrett of Illinois Institute of Technology and senior midfielder Mia Persson of Lindsey Wilson College lead the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® College Division Men's and Women's Soccer Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The Capital One Academic All-America® College Division soccer teams are comprised of student-athletes from NAIA, Canadian and two-year institutions.

Barrett and Persson have been chosen as the winners of the Capital One College Division Academic All-America® of the Year award for the men's and women's soccer teams, respectively.

Barrett, a senior business major with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A., was named as the winner of the Capital One College Division Academic All-America® of the Year award for the second consecutive year. The Felixstowe, England native led Illinois Tech and the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference in goals (17) and points (40), earning him the CCAC Player of the Year award for the second time in his career after leading the Scarlet Hawks to an 8-9-2 record.

Barrett currently ranks sixth in the NAIA in shots on goal per game (3.000), seventh in shots per game (4.890), 23rd in points per game (2.220), 25th in total goals (17) and goals per game (0.940), and 26th in total points (40). He finished his career with 61 goals, 22 assists and 144 points.

Persson, a senior from Sjobo, Sweden, has led Lindsey Wilson to a No. 4 ranking and a 16-4-1 record. The Blue Raiders are one of 16 teams who are competing for the NAIA national championship this week in Orange Beach, Ala.

A communication major with a 3.89 G.P.A., Persson currently ranks fifth in the NAIA in goals (27), sixth in goals per match (1.29) and ninth in points (59). She is also ninth in points per match (2.81). Her 68 career goals rank second all-time in the program's history – one goal away from the record of 69. Her career 161 career points are just three shy of the record of 164 and her 27 goals are the fourth most in a single season at LWC. The two-time Mid-South Conference Player of the Year and a four-time all-conference first-team selection is a three-time NAIA All-American.
