

CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAM SELECTED BY COSIDA

FOR RELEASE:

Monday, June 4– 12 noon (EDT)

KYLE ROSS OF SASKATCHEWAN,
HAYLEY WICKENHEISER OF CALGARY LEAD
CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA®
COLLEGE DIVISION AT-LARGE TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Graduate student Kyle Ross, an ice hockey player at the University of Saskatchewan, and sophomore Hayley Wickenheiser, an ice hockey standout at the University of Calgary, headline the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® College Division men's and women's at-large teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The Capital One College Division Academic All-America® men's and women's at-large teams are comprised of student-athletes from NAIA, Canadian and two-year institutions.

The at-large program for the Capital One Academic All-America® program includes the sports of fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, skiing, swimming and diving, tennis, water polo for both men and women; bowling, crew and field hockey for women; and volleyball and wrestling for men.

Ross, who is majoring in law and carrying a 4.00 G.P.A. in graduate school, served as team captain at Saskatchewan and played forward, recording 16 goals and 17 assists in 28 games to rank fourth in Canada West scoring. He helped Saskatchewan appear in three straight playoffs and win the 2012 Canada West Championship. Ross was named the 2012 Canada Interuniversity Sport (CIS) Most Sportsmanlike Player and earned Canada West second team all-star honors three times. In addition, he was the editor of the Saskatchewan Law Review and the 2012 Law School Valedictorian.

Wickenheiser, who has a 3.96 G.P.A. as a kinesiology/pre-med major, was a first team all-star in Canada West. A native of Shaunavon, Saskatchewan, Canada, Wickenheiser led the conference with 17 goals and led the nation with seven game-winners. She played 16 games and scored 32 points, then added another nine in four games during the playoffs as the Dinos captured their first-ever Canada West title.

At the CIS Championship, the All-Canadian selection scored twice and added two assists in the national final as the Dinos were crowned CIS champions – the first national title in program history – and she was named to the all-tournament team. Wickenheiser became the first women's hockey player to ever win the Dr. Dennis Kadatz Athlete of the Year award at Calgary in 2012 and was named to the CIS Top 8 Academic All-Canadians in 2010-11.

Capital One College Division Academic All-America® Men's At-Large First Team

Ross is joined on the men's at-large first team by Janosch Apelt of Azusa Pacific University, Matt Brahm and Ben Gillen of Saint Ambrose University, James Collet of the College of Idaho, Simon Felix and Chris Freeman of Embry-Riddle (Fla.) University, Travis Gabehart of Clarke College, Renardy Guelfi and Martin Poboril of Oklahoma Christian University, Gustav Hollnagel and Reid Rosen of Morningside College, Richard Leal of Wayland Baptist University, Evan Sanna of Cumberland University, and Kirell Sinitsyn of Fresno Pacific University.

Apelt, a senior tennis player who is an international business major with a 3.62 G.P.A., led Azusa Pacific to a No. 4 ranking in the NAIA. A Frankfurt, Germany native, he helped the Cougars advance to the semifinal round of the 2012 NAIA National Championship Tournament as the team finished with a 21-3 overall record.

A senior volleyball player, Brahm has a 3.87 G.P.A. as a finance and economics major at Saint Ambrose. A native of Elmhurst, Ill., Brahm helped Saint Ambrose to a No. 1 ranking and a national runner-up finish in the NAIA National Invitational Tournament. He registered 87 kills, 27 aces, 100 digs and 14 blocks as Saint Ambrose set a program record for wins, finishing with a 33-3 mark.

A finance and economics major with a 3.71 G.P.A., Gillen is a senior golfer at Saint Ambrose. A native of Monmouth, Ill., Gillen was the low scorer in four events this year for Saint Ambrose and had three top-five finishes among his seven top-10 finishes. In early April, he carded a collegiate- and tournament-best 67 in the third round of the Beu/Mussatto Invitational hosted by Western Illinois University. He averaged a 75.73 over 26 rounds this year and led SAU with a ninth-place effort at the Midwest Collegiate Conference Men's Golf Championship

A number three singles and number two doubles player at the College of Idaho, Collet is a senior physics major with a 3.93 G.P.A. A native of Pocatello, Idaho, he posted a 3-8 record in singles play and a 2-7 mark in doubles. Collet was also named to the 2011 Capital One Academic All-America® College Division Men's Soccer first teams. A three-time NAIA Scholar-Athlete, Collet was named as the College of Idaho Student-Athlete of the Year in 2012.

Felix and Freeman were teammates on the Embry-Riddle tennis team, which finished 20-4 overall and advanced to the NAIA National Championship Tournament semi-final round. A sophomore from Geneva, Switzerland, Felix is an air traffic management major with a 3.73 G.P.A. He earned NAIA All-American second team honors as he posted a 23-5 doubles record and a 22-5 singles mark.

Freeman, a junior aeronautical science major from Costa Mesa, Cal., owns a 3.64 G.P.A. He made the NAIA All-American first team and posted a 23-9 singles record. After winning the USTA/ITA Florida Regional last October, Freeman went on to become only the second player in ERAU men's tennis history to claim a national title, winning the ITA/NAIA national championship. Freeman has been named as The Sun Conference Player of the Year twice.

A senior volleyball player, Gabehart is a history and secondary education major with a 3.95 G.P.A. The Franklin, Ind., native helped Clarke post a 15-12 overall record as he recorded 181 kills, 34 blocks and 93 digs. Gabehart earned MAMVIC East all-conference honors and he is all a three-time member of the MAMVIC All-Academic Team.

Guelfi and Poboril led Oklahoma Christian capture the 2012 NAIA men's tennis national championship. A senior international business major with a 3.56 G.P.A., Guelfi went 18-3 in singles play and had a 13-7 mark in doubles. The Joinville, Brazil, native is ranked No. 42 in the ITA'S NAIA singles rankings and No. 14 in doubles. Guelfi is a four-time NAIA All-American selection.

Ross, Wickenheiser Lead Capital One Academic All-America® College Division At-Large Team – Page 3

A junior information systems major with a 3.40 G.P.A., Poboril posted an 18-4 record in singles play and 17-5 in doubles for Oklahoma Christian. He is ranked No. 10 in singles play nationally and sixth in doubles. A three-time first team NAIA All-American, Poboril is a native of Příbram, Czech Republic.

Hollnagel and Rosen led the Morningside men's tennis team to a 9-7 record this season. A junior international affairs and psychology major, Hollnagel has a 3.99 G.P.A. A native of Dresden, Germany, native, he posted an 11-4 record at No. 3 singles and went 11-4 in doubles play. He was named to the All-Great Plains Athletic Conference team for both singles and doubles. Hollnagel is 29-19 in singles play in his career as a Mustang.

Rosen is a junior business administration major and has a 3.80 G.P.A. This season, the Fairmont, Minn., native went 9-4 at No. 2 singles and 10-4 in doubles for Morningside. Like Hollnagel, Rosen was named to the All-GPAC team for both singles and doubles. He was also named to the All-GPAC first team during his freshman and sophomore seasons.

A senior history major with a 3.72 G.P.A., Leal recorded a 14-8 overall record with three pins at 125 pounds for the Wayland Baptist wrestling team. A 2011 and 2012 NAIA national qualifier, the Pampa, Texas, native earned NAIA Scholar-Athlete honors in 2012. Leal also finished second at the 2011-12 York Open and third at the Central Baptist College Open.

A senior tennis player, Sanna is a general business major with a 3.87 G.P.A. at Cumberland. The Kew, Australia, native helped the Bulldogs earn a berth at the 2012 NAIA National Championship Tournament, advancing to the round of 16. Sanna went 10-2 in singles and 11-2 in doubles this season. He was ranked 19th nationally in doubles.

Sinitsyn led the Fresno Pacific tennis team to a 25-2 overall record and a runner-up finish at the 2012 NAIA National Championship tournament. An international finance major with a 3.77 G.P.A., the junior from Toronto, Canada, went 14-6 in singles play and 16-3 in doubles for a Fresno Pacific team that spent the majority of the season ranked No. 1. Sinitsyn earned a spot on the 2012 NAIA All-America first team.
