FOR RELEASE:

Tuesday, June 5 – 12 noon (EDT)

SETH ECKER OF ITHACA AND CELENA DOPART OF WPI TOP
CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA®
DIVISION III MEN'S AND WOMEN'S AT-LARGE TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior wrestler Seth Ecker of Ithaca College and field hockey standout Celena Dopart of Worcester Polytechnic Institute lead the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's and Women's At-Large Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Ecker and Dopart have been chosen as the winners of the NCAA Division III Academic All-America® of the Year awards for Men's and Women's At-Large, respectively.

The Capital One Division III Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division III national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2011-12 D-III Academic All-America® teams program.

The Capital One Academic All-America® Men's At-Large program includes the sports of fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, skiing, swimming and diving, tennis, water polo and wrestling.

The Capital One Academic All-America® Women's At-Large program includes the sports of bowling, crew, fencing, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, skiing, swimming and diving, tennis and water polo.

A business administration major with a 3.84 G.P.A., Ecker is a repeat selection as a first team Capital One Academic All-America® selection. A native of Pottstown, Pa., Ecker is also a back-to-back NCAA national champion at 133 pounds.

Ithaca's first ever two-time national champion, Ecker is a three-time Empire Collegiate Wrestling Conference All-Academic team member and a three-time National Wrestling Coaches Association Scholar-Athlete. Ecker is also a three-time NCAA All-American and the only two-time winner of the ECWC Wrestler of the Year honor and finished his career with a record of 108-20.

An aerospace engineering major with a 4.00 G.P.A., Dopart has earned Capital One Academic All-America® honors for third year in a row. She was a third team selection in 2010 and was named to the first team last year.

A native of Washington, D.C., Dopart scored a pair of goals and led the Engineers with seven assists this season. A three-time Academic All-New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference honoree, Dopart earned the WPI Varsity Club Award, given to WPI's top female student-athlete, and is the school's NCAA Woman of the Year nominee.

Ecker is one of two repeat selections on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's At-Large first team and is one of two wrestlers on the squad.

Senior Tony Valek of Augsburg is also a repeat selection. A native of Belle Plaine, Minn., Valek owns a 3.87 G.P.A. with a double-major in accounting and general management.

A three-time All-American, Valek compiled a 34-1 record this season and finished with a career mark of 136-25. Valek is a four-time NCAA Championship qualifier and finished as national runner-up as both a sophomore and junior. A three-time NWCA Scholar All-American, Valek also received the NCAA Elite 89 award. He is the second member of his family to earn Capital One Academic All-America® At-Large honors. His older brother, Ryan Valek, who was also a wrestler at Augsburg was a first team selection in 2006 and a third team honoree in 2005.

Overall, four wrestlers were named to the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's At-Large first team recognition. Ecker's teammate at Ithaca, Jeremy Stierly and senior Sam Campbell of Washington and Lee were also named to the first team.

A graduate student with a 3.83 G.P.A. in the M.B.A. program at Ithaca, Stierly was the NCAA Division III champion at 149 pounds. A native of Pottstown, Pa., Stierly was the national runner-up at 141 pounds twice. Stierly finished the season with a 12-1 record, improving his career mark to 91-18.

Campbell, who has a double major in politics and English with a 3.98 G.P.A., produced a 25-8 record in 2012, tying the Washington and Lee record for wins in a season. He placed third in the 133-pound weight class at the 2012 Centennial Conference Championship Meet. A native of Winnetka, Ill., he finished his career with a 73-34 record, the second best mark in school history.

Swimming student-athletes dominated this year's group of the Capital One Academic All-America® Men's At-Large first team honorees with five selections, including two products of perennial national power Kenyon. Senior David Somers and junior Curtis Ramsey represent the Lords in the group, which includes Whitworth senior Rory Buck, Colorado senior Jordan DeGayner and Olivet senior Michael Harden.

A physics and classics major with a 3.71 G.P.A., Somers is one of 58 nationwide recipients of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. A native of North Potomac, Md., Somers was the 2012 North Coast Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete. A 10-time national relay champion and the 2011 individual champion in the 50-yard free style, Somers was a key member of the Lords' national championship teams in 2009 and 2010. As a senior, he was the 2012 NCAC Swimmer of the Year.

Ramsey, one of only two juniors on the first team, has a double major in physics and economics with a 3.92 G.P.A. A native of Wilmington, Del., Ramsey is a two-time national relay champion and placed third in the 100 freestyle and ninth in the 50 free in 2012. Ramsey was a member of Kenyon's champion and record-setting 200 freestyle relay at the NCAC Championship.

A double major in kinesiology and business management, Buck has a 3.81 G.P.A. A native of Dubai, Buck is a four-time NCAA Division III national champion, winning back-to-back titles in the 100 and 200 breaststroke as a junior and senior. He also owns school records in both events and was the 2011 NCAA Division III Men's Swimmer of the Year after breaking a long-standing national record in the 200. Earlier this year, Buck competed for a spot on South Africa's 2012 Olympic team.

A chemistry major with a 3.90 G.P.A., DeGayner is the first Colorado College swimmer to receive Academic All-America® honors. An All-American swimmer in 2012, DeGayner placed first in the NCAA 200-free, making him just the second Colorado College swimmer to win a national title. A native of Nokesville, Va., DeGayner was the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Swimmer of the Year twice. He was also named SCAC Swimmer of the Meet for the second year in a row.

A second team Capital One Academic All-America® selection last year, he is a four-time first team all-conference honoree and leaves Manhattanville as the all-time leader in singles victories (64), doubles victories (61) and overall wins (125).

Carella has a double major in finance and accounting with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. A native of Rocky Hill, Conn., he was the valedictorian of the graduating class at Nichols. Carella was a three-year team captain and led Nichols to its first NCAA Championship Tournament appearance. Carella graduated with the program's winningest records in doubles (51-29) and singles (48-30) action. He is also a six-time All-Commonwealth Coast Conference pick, a three-time Intercollegiate Tennis Association Scholar-Athlete and was the 2012 CCC Senior Scholar Athlete of the Year.

A physics major with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A., Dombos earned second team Capital One Academic All-America® honors last year. A native of Kalamazoo, Mich.. Dombos helped Kalamazoo win its 74th consecutive Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship. He is a two-time All-MIAA honoree and earned the league's Lawrence Green Award as the top student-athlete in men's tennis. Dombos finished his career with 62 singles victories.

A biochemistry, biophysics and molecular biology major with a 3.97 G.P.A., Holton-Burke led Whitman to its fifth straight Northwest Conference championship and its sixth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Division III Championship Tournament. A native of Boulder, Col., Holton-Burke is a two-time first team All-NWC honoree and he was the 2011 NWC Player of the Year. Holton-Burke posted a 15-6 singles record this year and 17-8 mark in doubles.

Junior Pier-Olivier Cotnoir of Norwich and senior Mike Tota of SUNY-Cortland round out the Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's At-Large first team.

A forward for the Cadets' ice hockey team, Cotnoir is a health science major with a 3.77 G.P.A. A native of Rouyn-Noranda, Quebec, Canada Cotnoir was a first-team All-ECAC East honoree and an ECAC East all-academic honoree. Cotnoir was chosen by the New England Hockey Writer's Association as a Division II-III All-Star and received CCM Old Time Hockey All-American accolades. Cotnoir, the two-time Norwich MVP, scored a career high 21 goals and 42 points to lead Norwich to a 24-3-2 record in 2012. He also led Norwich to an unprecedented 14th straight ECAC East regular season title and a 10th ECAC tournament title. Norwich advanced to its 10th Division III Frozen Four.

A business economics major with a 4.09 G.P.A, Tota is the Elite 89 Award recipient for 2012 NCAA Division III Men's Lacrosse. Tota led the Red Dragons to a 21-1 record and a berth in the NCAA Division III championship game. Cortland's top scorer with 46 goals and 77 points, he was third on the team with 65 ground balls. A third-team United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association All-American, Tota finished his career with a school record 174 goals. He also scored 247 points in his career, second on Cortland's all-time list.
