BRENDAN BUCKLEY OF ARMY, ELIZABETH BEISEL OF FLORIDA TOP CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I AT-LARGE TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior lacrosse player Brendan Buckley of the U.S. Military Academy and junior swimmer Elizabeth Beisel of the University of Florida lead the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I men's and women's at-large teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Buckley and Beisel have been chosen as the winners of the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year award for the Division I Men's and Women's At Large programs, respectively.

The at-large team for the Capital One Academic All-America® program includes the sports of fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, skiing, swimming and diving, tennis, water polo for both men and women; bowling, crew and field hockey for women; and volleyball and wrestling for men.

An engineering management major with a 3.99 G.P.A., Buckley will enter the Field Artillery branch of the U.S. Army and post with the 173rd Airborne Brigade in Schweinfurt, Germany. The Massapequa, N.Y., native was awarded the Distinguished Cadet and Superintendent's Award for Excellence. He became the second Army student-athlete to receive the Senior CLASS Award since April and the second Black Knights' men's lacrosse player overall.

A three-year starter at close defenseman, Buckley earned United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) All-America third team honors and was drafted by the Boston Cannons with the 54th overall pick in the 2013 Major League Lacrosse Draft. He was a two-time All-Patriot League first team selection. Buckley led Army with 19 caused turnovers in 2013 and guarded some of the nation's best attackmen. Army finished 8-6 overall including a 4-2 Patriot League record.

Graduating 10th in his class of 1,077 cadets, Buckley started a cadet mentorship program that has included trips to a local elementary school for reading and playing sports with students. He was a USILA Scholar Athlete honoree once.

A telecommunications major with a 3.63 G.P.A., Beisel claimed her second NCAA individual championship with a first place finish in the 400 I.M. at the 2013 NCAA Championships. She added five All-America first team honors to her collection this season and now has 14 medals in her career.

At the 2013 Southeastern Conference Championships, the North Kingstown, R.I., native won SEC titles in the 400 I.M. and the 200-backstroke. She also collected five All-SEC honors, finishing no lower than second in all three individual events and swimming on two second-place relay teams (400-free and 800-free).

Beisel, who was awarded the SEC Commissioner's Trophy (high point award) for the second straight year, finished the regular season undefeated in the 200-backstroke. She led the Gators with 21 individual victories during the season (not including championships), scoring wins in eight events.

A member of the 2012 United States Olympics team, Beisel earned a silver medal in the 400 I.M. and a bronze medal in the 200 backstroke. The 2012 SEC Female Swimmer of the Year has won both the 400 I.M. and the 200 backstroke three years in a row at the SEC Championships. She is a 2012 and 2013 SEC Commissioner's Trophy recipient who led the Gators to a sixth place finish at the NCAA Championship Meet.

Capital One Division I Academic All-America® Men's At-Large First Team

Buckley is joined on the Capital One Academic All-America® men's at-large Division I first team by three wrestlers, two golfers, two swimmers, two ice hockey players and two tennis players. In addition, there is one other lacrosse player, a water polo player, a gymnast and a fencer.

Wrestlers Steve Bonanno of Hofstra University, Matt Brown of Penn State University and wrestler Josh Ihnen of the University of Nebraska were named to the first team, along with golfers Nathan Anderson of North Dakota State University and Cory Whitsett of the University of Alabama. Tennis standouts Greg Andrews of the University of Notre Dame and Victor Valente of Georgia State University were also honored. Ice hockey players Nick Bailen of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Cheyne Rocha of Army also earned spots on the first team, along with swimmers Alex Lendrum of the University of Southern California and Kyle Owens of Auburn University. Water polo player Jackson Hummeldorf of the U.S. Naval Academy, gymnast Michael Newburger of Ohio State and fencer Maxwell Stearns of Ohio State round out the first team.

Buckley is the only repeat first team selection on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I men's at-large team. Bonanno, Ihnen, Anderson, Lendrum and Owens were Capital One Academic All-America® second team picks in 2012, while Bailen was a third team selection last year.

Army and Ohio State are the only schools with two first team representatives.

An M.B.A. candidate who graduated in May of 2012 with a 3.77 G.P.A. in accounting, Bonanno was a four-time NCAA championship qualifier for Hofstra. A 2012 NCAA All-American and a two-time Colonial Athletic Association wrestling champion at 125-pounds, he was a two-time CAA Wrestling Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A native of Wantagh, N.Y., Bonanno had a 19-12 overall record in 2012-13 including a 12-9 mark in dual matches and a 6-0 mark in the CAA. He closed out his Hofstra career by winning 12 of his last 17 matches to finish with a 103-50 career mark.

A sophomore with a major in criminology and a 3.97 G.P.A., Brown was the NCAA runner-up and Big Ten champion at 174-pounds while leading Penn State to its third straight NCAA and Big Ten Wrestling championships. A native of West Valley City, Utah, he was the 2013 NCAA Elite 89 wrestling recipient and compiled a 29-5 record including a 11-3 record in duals. An Academic All-Big Ten selection, Brown has a 56-7 career record with 15 pins.

Ihnen, a graduate student with a 3.80 G.P.A. in business, was a four-time NCAA championship qualifier and earned 2012 All-America honors wrestling at 184-pounds for Nebraska. He compiled a 27-8 record as a senior, including a 13-4 ledger in dual matches. A native of Sheldon, Iowa, Ihnen was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten and All-Big 12 performer, and a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. A member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, he was a volunteer for the People's City Mission.

An accounting major with a 4.0 G.P.A., Anderson led The Summit League with a North Dakota State school-record 72.23 scoring average, won two tournaments at Navy and South Dakota State and was runner-up at two other events. The Oxbow, N.D., native, shot a school record-tying 64 in the final round at Rice to vault from 24th place into a tie for second place. He also tied the school 36-hole record with a 138 in his win at Navy.

Whitsett, a junior management major with a perfect 4.0 G.P.A., led the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Alabama in scoring with a 70.84 average heading into the NCAA Championships. He went 4-and-3 in his match against Illinois on June 2, leading the Crimson Tide to the program's first golf national championship. A native of Houston, Texas, Whitsett received the NCAA Elite 89 Men's Golf award in both 2012 and 2013. He was named as the 2013 SEC Golfer of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He was a two-time All-American and All-SEC first team pick.

A junior accounting major with a 3.88 G.P.A., Andrews was the two-time Big East Men's Tennis Player of the Year and a three-time all-conference selection for Notre Dame. He was named as the Most Outstanding Player in leading the Fighting Irish to the 2013 Big East Tournament Championship. A native of Richland, Mich., Andrews was an eight-time Big East Player of the Week during his career and earned 2011 Big East Freshman of the Year honors. He reached the 2012 United State Tennis Association (USTA)/Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Midwest Region doubles championship and was a two-time NCAA singles qualifier.

A senior majoring in computer info systems with a 4.16 G.P.A., Valente was a first-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer who led Georgia State to the 2013 conference title. He advanced to the NCAA championships in both singles and doubles, with his doubles team reaching the round of 16. The San Paulo, Brazil, native received the ITA Southeast Region Senior of the Year and Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship awards. Valente was ranked 64th nationally in singles, compiling a 19-4 record. He also went 14-2 in doubles competition. He was the ITA Region runner-up and qualified for the USTA/ITA national indoor tournament.

A double major in business and management/economics with a 3.88 G.P.A., Bailen led the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI) hockey team with 31 points on a team-best 12 goals and 19 assists in 35 games. He was named to the All-ECAC Hockey team, the CCM Hockey National All-America East first teams and was chosen to the All-USCHO second team. A native of Fredonia, N.Y., Bailen scored 33 goals and 72 assists for 105 points in 149 career games for the Engineers.

A senior majoring in engineering management with a 4.2 G.P.A. at Army, Rocha was a Rhodes Scholar finalist and won the 2013 Senior CLASS Award for men's ice hockey. A three-time Atlantic Hockey Association Academic All-Star, he played in all but two games at defenseman for the Black Knights last season, scoring one goal and adding three assists. A native of Rye, N.H., Rocha spearheaded House of Blues, an awareness campaign for prostate cancer, the preferred charity of Atlantic Hockey. He is active with the Special Olympics and Neighborhood Knights, a team group that provides community service.

A bio-chemistry major with a 3.76 G.P.A., Lendrum earned an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship, a Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholarship and was selected as the Pac-12 Swimming Scholar Athlete of the Year. He capped off his senior year as a member of Southern California's Pac-12 champion and USC record-setting 800-freestyle relay. The Phoenix, Ariz., native was a two-time first team All-American and led USC to a fourth-place national finish. He reached the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials semifinals in the 200-backstroke, and was a four-time Pac-12 finalist and two-time U.S. National finalist in the event.

She holds school records for season (71.24) and career (72.11) scoring and is a two-time NGCA All-American Scholar.

A senior sport management and recreation major with a 3.70 G.P.A., Floyd finished her career with the most career All-America honors in Tennessee history with 24, earning six as a senior. She swam a leg on all three of the Lady Vols' NCAA Championship relay teams, helping Tennessee to a program-best third-place finish at the NCAA Meet. The Lexington, Ky., native is a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and was named to the 2012 CSCAA Scholar All-America team. Floyd won six career Southeastern Conference titles and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll three times.

A senior majoring in general health science at Purdue, Gustafson has a 3.99 G.P.A. An NCAA and Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship recipient, she competed in five events (two individual, three relays) at the NCAA Championships. At the Big Ten Championships, Gustafson accounted for 28.5 points. A two-time NCAA Championships qualifier, the Columbus, Ind., native is a two-time honorable mention All-American. Gustafson established a Purdue record in the 50-free and was part of school records in all five relay events during her career. She is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

A graduate student in kinesiology, Lamoureux has a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. In 2013, she played in 39 games and scored 35 goals, 46 assists and 81 points for North Dakota en route to first team All-America honors. A finalist for the Patty Kazmaier Award as the top player in NCAA women's hockey, she was named the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) Most Outstanding Student-Athlete for the second time and became WCHA's all-time scoring leader with 285 points in 149 games. Lamoureux led the nation with 12 power-play goals and was tied for first in the NCAA with nine game-winning goals. The third-leading scorer in the nation, she was a WCHA Scholar-Athlete who led the U.S. to a gold medal at the 2013 Women's World Hockey Championship in April.

A senior journalism major with a 3.50 G.P.A, Rätty was one of the top goalkeepers in the nation and led Minnesota to its second straight national championship. She posted a 0.96 goals against average and a .956 save percentage with 17 shutouts and 776 saves. A native of Espoo, Finland, she was a three-time All-American, a three-time Patty Kazmaier Award finalist and two-time NCAA Tournament MVP. Rätty, who holds seven NCAA records, is a four-time All-WCHA honoree, a three-time WCHA All-Academic selection and a 14-time WCHA Player of the Week. The two-time WCHA Goaltending champion is a two-time Olympian for Finland.

A member of Southern California's national champion water polo team and the MVP of NCAA Tournament, Bolonyai is a junior with a double major in economics and mathematics and a 3.39 G.P.A. The Budapest, Hungary, native posted a career-high 17 saves in the national championship game and averaged 13.3 saves per game during the NCAA Tournament. She led USC to the 2013 MPSF title and was a first team All-MPSF selection. A two-time Association of Collegiate Water Polo Coaches (ACWPC) All-American, she was an ACWPC All-Academic honoree twice and a three-time MPSF Scholar-Athlete. Bolonyai played for the 2012 Hungarian Olympic.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Buja is a junior human ecology major with a 4.00 G.P.A. A bowler at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore posted a total pinfall of 11,920 and had a 198.67 average with a 266 high team game. A member of four national championship teams at UMES, Buja was the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Elite 89 Award winner. A two-time All-MEAC selection and MEAC All-Academic honoree, she was named the United States Bowling Congress Star of Tomorrow and was the 2012 and 2013 UMES Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Cowburn, a graduate student in architectural history with a 3.95 G.P.A., was a member of Virginia's Varsity Eight that went 15-2 and placed fourth at the NCAA Championship this season. A native of Worcestershire, England, she is a two-time Atlantic Coast Conference Crew of the Year member and was named All-ACC twice. A member of the 2012 national championship team, Cowburn was a 2012 Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association (CRCA) first team All-American and was named to the 2012 ACC All-Academic Team and ACC Honor Roll.

A senior political science major with a 3.42 G.P.A., DePompeo scored 127 points with 56 goals, 71 assists, and a .519 shooting percentage to lead the Navy lacrosse team to a 19-2 record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Sayville, N.Y., native led the nation in points and points per game (6.05) en route to Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLC) third team All-America honors. A three-time All-South Region honoree, DePompeo was named the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year three times.
