ANDY BAYER OF INDIANA, JORDAN HASAY OF OREGON TOP CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I TRACK & FIELD/CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior distance runners Andy Bayer of Indiana University and Jordan Hasay of the University of Oregon lead the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I men's and women's track and field/cross country teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Bayer and Hasay have been chosen as the winners of the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year award for the Division I Men's and Women's track and field and cross country programs, respectively.

Bayer is a biology major who graduated this spring from Indiana University with a 3.60 G.P.A. A native of Leo, Ind., Bayer is the only Hoosiers' male track and field student-athlete to earn Capital One Division I Academic All-America® honors. He was a second team Capital One Academic All-America® selection in 2011 and 2012.

The 2012 NCAA outdoor 1,500 meter champion, Bayer finished his career as an 11-time All-American including an eighth place finish in the 1,500 at the 2013 national meet. He was a two-time NCAA runner-up, and also earned indoor All-America honors in the distance medley relay and 3,000 meters.

Bayer was a six-time Big Ten champion and became the third runner in Big Ten history to win both the 1,500 and 5,000 meter titles at the 2013 Big Ten Outdoor Championships. He scored 26 points to lead Indiana to the 2012 Big Ten Indoor Track and Field championship. During his career, Bayer earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors and was also a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar.

Hasay, a senior middle distance runner with a 3.87 G.P.A. majoring in business administration, was also named as the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year in 2011. In 2011, she became the first person in the history of the Academic All-America® program to win the national honor as a sophomore. A native of Arroyo Grande, Cal., she is the most decorated runner in school history with 18 combined All-America awards, two national titles and four Pac-12 championships.

As a senior, she led Oregon to NCAA championships in both cross country and indoor track, along with the Pac-12 outdoor title. The cross country championship was Oregon's first national title since 1987. Individually, she placed third at the 2012 NCAA Cross Country championship meet. At the 2013 NCAA Indoor National Championships, she finished second in the 3,000 meters and fourth in the 5,000 meters to score 13 points. At the 2013 NCAA Outdoor championship, Hasay finished third in the 5,000.
