CURTIS RAMSEY AND TEAL GOVE LEAD CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION III AT-LARGE TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Senior swimmer Curtis Ramsey of Kenyon College and ice hockey standout Teal Gove of Plattsburgh State headline the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III At-Large Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Ramsey and Gove have been selected as the NCAA Division III Academic All-America® of the Year award winners for the College Division men's and women's at-large programs, respectively.

The Capital One Division II and III Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division II and III national governance structures, to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2012-13 DII and DIII Academic All-America® teams program.

An economics major with a 3.84 G.P.A., Ramsey graduated from Kenyon as a five-time NCAA Relay Champion and a 15-time NCAA All-American. A native of Wilmington, Del., Ramsey also helped the Lords to a pair of NCAA Championships and two runner-up finishes during his career.

Ramsey is one of four repeat Capital One Academic All-American® honorees on the Division III Men's At-Large First Team. He is a recent recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. Of the four repeat Capital One Academic All-America® honorees, Ramsey is the only one that earned first team honors the last two years.

Of Ramsey's five national titles, three came in the 200-yard freestyle relay in 2011, 2012 and 2013, and two came in the 400 free relay in 2012 and 2013. Individually, Ramsey finished his career with three NCAA top-five finishes and twice placed third in the nation in the 50-freestyle (2013) and 100-freestyle (2012). The North Coast Athletic Conference Swimmer of the Year in 2013, Ramsey earned a career best six NCAA All-American honors with three in relays and three in individual events.

One of 11 first time selections on the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Women's At-Large First Team, Gove was a third team selection in 2012. A biology major with a 3.83 G.P.A., Gove was the 2013 D3Hockey.com National Player of the Year. A native of Berwick, Ontario, Gove led the nation with 1.67 points per game and was second in the nation with 29 goals scored. Gove played in 115 games and scored 76 goals with 63 assists and 119 points with just four penalties in her career.

The three repeat selections that join Ramsey on the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's At-Large first team are all seniors. Overall, the team consists of 10 seniors, four juniors and one sophomore.

NCAA Singles Champion Adam Putterman of Washington University's tennis team and two-time volleyball All-American Matt Hohenberger of Massachusetts Institute of Technology were each named to the second team last season. Kyle Greco of the Plymouth State ice hockey team was a third-team selection in 2012.

An economics & strategy and organizational behavior double-major with a 3.75 G.P.A., Putterman won the 2013 NCAA singles championship and was named as the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Senior of the Year. A native of Houston, Texas, Putterman finished his storied career with a combined record of 164-70. Named as the 2013 University Athletic Association Most Valuable Player, Putterman was a four-time ITA All-American with two selections each for singles and doubles.

A mechanical engineering major with a 3.80 G.P.A., Hohenberger earned American Volleyball Coaches Association All-America honors the last two seasons. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Hohenberger ranked third in the nation this season with 4.10 kills per set and 17th with 0.45 aces per set. Hohenberger finished his career as MIT's all-time leader with 238 aces and ranks second with 1,495 kills. Off the court, Hohenberger has a provisional patent for the design of a cart that will transport kegs down flights of stairs into basements of bars.

A business administration major with 3.91 G.P.A., Greco served as team captain during his senior season for the Plymouth State ice hockey team. He finished his career as a two-time All-Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference first team pick. A native of Hillside, Ill., Greco led the Panthers with 14 goals to help them win to a second-consecutive MASCAC regular season championship. A three-time selection to the MASCAC All-Academic Team, Greco was twice a finalist for the Concannon Award of Greater Boston, given to the top American-born Division II/III player in New England.

Along with Ramsey, four swimmers and one diver were named to the 2013 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's At-Large first team, including junior teammate Andrew Chevalier of Kenyon. The other four selections are three seniors in Miller Douglas of Emory, Christopher Hall of RPI and Eric Klontz of Carleton, as well as sophomore in Will Guedes of Kalamazoo.

A chemistry major with a 3.94 G.P.A., Chevalier posted three top-12 performances at this year's NCAA Championship Meet. A native of Golden, Colo., Chevalier placed fifth nationally in the 400-yard I.M., sixth in the 500-freestyle and 12th in the 1,650-free. For his career, Chevalier was a nine-time NCAA All-American.
